THE CITY.

THE DAILY ASTORIAN will be sent by mail at 75 cents a month, free of postage. Residents who contemplate absence from the city can have their ASTORIAN follow them. DAILY or WEEKLY editions to any post-office without additional expense. Address may be changed as often as desired. Leave orders at the counting room.

Splendid weather.
How is that jail coming out?
Oregon fruit is coming into the market in appreciable quantities.
The Oregon Pioneers will meet at the State Fair grounds to-morrow.

The high water sends salmon bounding through the streets of Portland.
Note the change in the advertisement of the Ilwaco Steam Navigation company.

The Gen. Miller will be launched to-morrow. She is a splendidly-built craft and cost $40,000.

Snags and driftwood are thick in the channel, and the river at high tide is unusually turbid.

Subscriptions are now in order for the tournament. They will no doubt, meet with hearty and generous response.

21,000 cases of salmon have been shipped to San Francisco from the Columbia up to date, and 40,800 cases to Liverpool.

The pursuer of the Columbia makes up the host file of late San Francisco papers that we get. He never forgets us.

The Wallaceton was laid alongside Kinney's dock yesterday and began discharging ballast. She will load with salmon and flour.

Our Portland contemporaries chronicle the arrival of two more Chinese steamers. Nothing heard of them in these latitudes.

All kinds of blanks required by shippers, at wholesale prices at this office. If you want a special notice get them out at twelve hours notice.

Portland thinks it should have a Fourth of July celebration. The Portland Fire Department, or as much of it as can be spared will probably celebrate in Astoria.

We have as yet no authentic election returns from Tillamook. The only thing that seems to connect us with our neighboring county is a legislative enactment and a grass-grown trail.

If some one will call and remove a stock of sheet music that is accumulating in this office the kindness will be appreciated. There are several "valses," and "caviats," whatever they may be, which appear to be written by Messrs. Andante, Con Amore, and Staccato.

If any one of our suburban hotel keepers will write and let us know when they intend to open their pleasure resorts we will publish it as a matter of news. We do a good deal of free advertising any how, and will give them the benefit of our circulation with others.

Scott, the man who was shot by Carlson last Sunday night was in about the same condition yesterday.
He claims that he was not in the vicinity with any criminal intent, was not in his house at any time, and know nothing about the matter. It is an unfortunate affair as it stands.

The coroner's jury in the inquest held on the body of Adolph Christiansen, found drowned on the 4th inst., gave as their verdict that the deceased came to his death by drowning, but were unable to determine whether it was accidental or not. There is a mystery surrounding the matter that will probably never be cleared up; the fact that he had considerable money on his person when missed and was found drowned with rifled pockets has but one appearance, viz: That the unfortunate man was robbed and murdered.

Scraping the Bar.

Lieutenant Polhemus was down on the bar with the Astoria, yesterday scraping the sands. This is good weather for the work. Speaking of the Columbia flood, Dr. Atkinson says:

"This is our greatest power. It is vast, mighty, resistless, able to clear out any channel, or dig a new one, wherever the sandy or silty bed can be stirred. Its strongest flow in midsummer is the best moment to plow through well known or shoaling bars, or dig a deeper channel to the ocean.
Now is the time for the Columbia's current to dig a deep channel across the south strip of the middle sands.
The northwest winds set the sea current southward. The river current bears the silt far out into the southward sea-flow. With the help of the iron harrow the bed or crust of the bar can be broken up for the current to sweep it off continually into deeper sea floor seaward from Clatsop beach."

Sacramento Fisheries.

In a very interesting article on the Sacramento salmon fisheries, the Contra Costa Gazette says: "The bulk of fishermen in this state is composed of Italians and Greeks, the Italians being probably in the majority. There are employed in the salmon fisheries between San Francisco and Sacramento about 800 boats. Each boat is manned by two fishermen; there are, therefore, 1,600 men employed in catching salmon between the two points named, or in a distance of only 120 miles.
There are 250 boats in the Straits of Carquinez alone. There are nine can-neries along the Suisun bay, and several in San Francisco, employing on an average from 60 to 80 men to each establishment. There are, therefore, no less than 2,500 men employed in taking salmon and canning them for home and foreign consumption. These figures convey some idea of the growing importance of this comparatively new industry."

The Washington Territory seal fisheries have been unprofitable this season.

The Columbia came in at 9:45 yesterday morning; the State of California went to sea at 10:20.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will give an ice cream and strawberry festival on Friday evening.

Everything is booming now on the line of the railroad extension south of Roseburg. There are now between 1,200 and 1,400 Chinese at work.

church are requested to meet at close of prayer meeting, in Y. M. C. A. room this evening. A full attendance is desired.

The Klickitat county fair will take place on October 3d, 4th, 5th and 6th.
Water will be furnished by means of hydraulic power. Premiums to the extent of $1000 are offered, of which $500 are speed premiums.

At 7:48 last evening No. One's whistle blew, and at 7:50 she was throwing water. 'Twas fun for the small boy who doesn't mind a wetting, and when the engine got fairly under way the sudden decrease in the volume of the river evinced the tremendous suction of the pump.

Don't be angry if we repeat that great care is necessary to prevent fires this dry weather. The earthquake a few weeks ago shook up fires, and it is right there the danger lies. We have the best fire department north of San Francisco, but in such dry weather as the present every one should consider himself and his neighbor as "corset" member, and do good service in precaution company No. Four.

Judges and clerks who served at the election swear that they will never again assume the same duties. They were completely fagged out and did not complete their labors until Wednesday night. Considerably more than 60 hours continuous labor, without rest and sleep becomes extremely monotonous and tiresome, and does not make one covet the thankless task. The precincts are entirely too large and include too many voters, requiring more time and labor than responsible men are willing to bestow.
The number of precincts should be increased and their size materially reduced. The above from the Portland Mercury has equally apt application in Astoria.

Mr. F. C. Young, of the I & L store, will go down to San Francisco on the Columbia next Saturday to purchase a new stock of fancy goods. Any one wishing to send a special order can be assured their tastes will be consulted by that gentleman.

Handsome satin de Lyons mantellets, suits and rhinoceros at Mrs. Derby's.
Lift is the manufacturer, and of course this is sufficient. To-morrow 25 more will be shipped to Miss Brimhall.

A HUMAN BAROMETER.

The Real Relation Between the Human Body and the Weather Scientifically Explained.
(Scientific American.)

One of the most valuable developments of modern science along the line of human necessity is the National Weather Bureau at Washington. Experience has shown that eighty-six per cent. of the predictions of the signal service are accurate; and these predictions are unquestionably of the greatest advantage to the seaman, the agriculturist and the entire commercial world. The service has proven its necessity by its usefulness, for in past times the factories for forecasting atmospheric changes were merely guesses. The only indications our fathers had of coming changes in the weather, were aching limbs, twinging joints, or painful sores.
These "indications," though true, were usually correct, and hence naturally suggested the enquiry as to the relation between the human system and the weather.
The body is unquestionably a barometer. It foretells changes in the atmosphere long before they occur, and this fact has been long taken advantage of by physicians who, when all other agencies fail, prescribe a change of air, thus hoping the body may find an atmospheric condition better suited to its needs. And yet the real relation between the human body and the weather has never been fully understood, nor has there ever been, until now, a correct explanation of what rheumatism (which seems in league with the atmosphere) really is. It was originally supposed to be a trouble in the joints, and as such was treated in the most ridiculous manner. This trouble became distinguished from the rheumatism of the muscles, and the muscles themselves presented a different pathology. It was prevalent that it was purely a muscular disorder. But this idea was found to be too narrow, and now it is universally accepted that rheumatism is a blood disease. And what a terrible disease it is. It often comes without warning and prostrates the system with agony. Again it begins in a gradual and insidious manner. In its acute form it manifests itself in every conceivable shape and always accompanied by intense pain. At one time it is inflammatory, at another neurotic. Sometimes it assumes the form of gout, and again that of pleurisy or lumbago; but in whatever manner it appears it is terribly painful and always to be dreaded. The pain and anguish of rheumatism are increased by its great danger, for it is liable to attack the brain or heart at any moment, thereby causing instant death. Indeed, nearly every case of heart disease, with all its dreadful symptoms, which ever occurred, can be traced more or less directly to rheumatic causes. In its chronic form it stiffens the joints, contracts the muscles, undermines the health and ruins the life. It frequently attacks men and women who are apparently in perfect health. Indeed, it is as greatly to be dreaded as any possible form of physical woe.

But, however severe its effects may be, the exact cause of this blood trouble has been an undecided question, and it is only within the past year that any decision upon the subject has been reached.
In order to fully determine what the cause of rheumatic disorders really was, certain authorities sent letters of inquiry from Washington to the leading practicing physicians of the land, and these inquiries were responded to quite generally, thus furnishing data of great value to science. The result of the inquiries held by the doctors are of a varied nature, but so overwhelming a proportion hold to one belief as to leave but little doubt that it is the correct one.
This belief, briefly stated, is that the acid in the blood causes rheumatism, and that it is only by removing this poisonous acid that rheumatism or neuralgic troubles in all their terrible forms can be cured. This being true, the important question arises: "How does this poisonous uric acid get into the blood, and how can it best be removed?" Uric acid is a waste product of the body, which the kidneys should carry out, but because they are weakened they cannot throw it from the system. Restore the kidneys and you restore the power that will force the uric acid from the system and thus banish the neuralgic agonies which it causes. This is reason; it is science. No one whose kidneys are in a perfect condition was ever troubled with rheumatism, and no rheumatic sufferer, however slight the pain may be, has perfect kidneys. The conclusion of this truth is inevitable: perfect kidneys mean freedom from rheumatic troubles.

When the rheumatism has manifested itself in any specific part of the body, attempts have been made to treat that part of the body. As a result, the pain has departed, but the disease has remained, lying subtly concealed and ready to break out at some unexpected moment. Checking the pain in any single locality only scatters the uric acid through the system, when if the seat of disorder, which are the kidneys, were reached, a complete cure would be the result. The way, therefore, to expel this rank and poisonous uric acid from the system is by restoring the form by keeping the kidneys in absolute health. This is no easy thing to do, and no means has, until within the past few years, been known by which the uric acid could be removed from the system, and thus banish the uric acid from the system. At last, however, scientists have discovered that the leaves of a tropical plant, commonly but little known to science and unknown to medicine, possessed marvelous qualities adapted for the kidneys. These leaves have been skillfully combined in the remedy now known as "Cure for Rheumatism and Liver Cure." It is, up to the present time, the only known preparation that acts so directly upon the kidneys as to effectually cure the various dangerous forms of kidney disease. It hence remove all uric acid from the blood. As a result the uric acid has been the means of perpetuating a very remarkable. Indeed, there are thousands of persons in America today who owe their restoration to health and entire freedom from rheumatism to this simple yet powerful remedy, which is known universally, and manufactured at Rochester New York, and sold in every drug store in the land.

From the doctors in the various cities of the United States who have certified over their own signatures to the scientific statement that uric acid in the blood is the cause of rheumatism, are a large number of Chicago and St. Louis physicians, among them being Dr. J. C. Atkinson, Dr. Wm. Webb, Dr. John M. Frank, Dr. Edwin T. Webster, Dr.
Benjamin F. Whittemore, Dr. William P. Robinson, Dr. Robert T. Atkinson, Dr. Thos. P. Humboldt, Dr. Wm. M.
Peters, Dr. Wm. Johnson, Dr. Isaac N. Love, Dr. Clark Whitler, Dr. J. T.
Hodges, Dr. Thos. F. Dailgion, Dr.
Nicholas Culman, Dr. C. C. Glasgow, Dr. Charles H. Goodman, Dr. Daniel

S. Wortman, Dr. George T. Pitzer, Dr.
Henry F. Ahlbrandt, Dr. Elijah H. Frazier, Dr. Carl Spitzig, Dr. David H. Martin, Dr. Benjamin H. Taylor, Dr. James L. Logan, Dr. A. Hancock, Dr. Henry Kremer, Dr. John J. Kane, Dr.
F. W. Kruse, Dr. Wm. C. Glasgow, Dr. Jeremiah S. B. Alleyne, Dr. Thos.
C. Comstock, Dr. Charles H. Hughes, Dr. Frederick Koebenejer, Dr. Joseph Heitzig, Dr. Edward A. De Calhol, Dr.

Bernard Roemer, Dr. James M. Clapton, Dr. Charles V. Ware, Dr. Alphonso Janinet, Dr. James L. Kent, Dr. William Barker, Dr. Solomon C. Martin, Dr. Rudolphi Studthum, Dr. Louis P. Ehrmar, Dr. John A. King, Dr. Simon E. Garlock, Dr. Theodore Foy, Dr. John E.
Faber, Dr. Ernest F. Hoffman, Dr. Herman Nagle, Dr. Adolph Wislizenus, Dr.
James L. Pirtle, Dr. Edward Rose, Dr.
William H. Grayson, Dr. Hugo M.
Starkloff, Dr. Robert M. Swander, Dr.
William N. Brennan, Dr. Temple S.
Hoyne, Dr. Lyman Ware, Dr. Charles W. Hemsted, Dr. William J. Hawkes, Dr. T. C. Duncan, D. William R. Gris-vold, Dr. Lyman Bedford, Dr. A. B.
Westcott, Dr. J. B. Bell, Dr. Charles M.
Clarke, Dr. W. H. Woodbury, Dr. Alfred H. Hatt, Dr. Herman Hahn, Dr.
Calvin M. Fitch, and Dr. John D. M.
Carr.

The theory of the doctors as above explained finds its confirmation in the fact that when the kidneys have been cured rheumatism is completely removed.
This is not, of course, always accomplished instantly, for in a disease so subtle, the cure is often very slow, but under no other plan can any hope of permanent relief ever be found. There are hundreds of cases on record during the present winter of persons afflicted with rheumatic troubles of the worst order who have been entirely cured by following the theory above stated and using the remedy mentioned. Many of these persons had the very worst possible symptoms. Vague aches in different parts of the body were followed by aguelike malarial fever, and the most particularly distressing and troubling pains were experienced each other, and the course poisonous acid inflamed all the veins.
Troubles which began with slight disorders increased to derangements of the system, and the patient was in a state of suffering when it was thought that it could have been so easily relieved. According to the theory and using the remedy above mentioned, the kidneys could have been restored to their normal vigor, the uric poison expelled from the system, the inflammation removed and the pain entirely banished.

There are some of the real and scientific facts regarding rheumatism, attested by the highest authority, and they are beyond question the only correct ones ever brought forward. They are advanced ideas, but they are true. Science they will be the accepted belief and practice of the world. If people suffer from rheumatic troubles in the joints, with these plain truths before them, they certainly can blame no one but themselves.
